

—Early Analytic Group—

Book Symposium on David Bostock's *Russell's Logical Atomism

Saturday November 15, 2014

Pathfoot Building, Room A7
University of Stirling

- |             |                                                                                                                                     |
|-------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 11—11:15    | welcome coffee                                                                                                                      |
| 11:15—12:30 | Bryan Pickel (Edinburgh)All sound philosophy should begin with an analysis of propositions: On Bostock on Russell |
| 12:30—1:30  | lunch                                                                                                                               |
| 1:30—2:45   | Fatema Amijee (Austin)Russell's Principle of Acquaintance: why believe it?                                        |
| 2:45—3      | coffee break                                                                                                                        |
| 3—4:15      | Peter Sullivan (Stirling)Functions                                                                                |
| 4:15—4:30   | coffee break                                                                                                                        |
| 4:30—5:45   | Michael Potter (Cambridge)The role of 'On Denoting' in Russell's thought                                          |
| 6—9:30      | drinks and dinner at the Meadowpark Hotel                                                                                           |