

FREGE@STIRLING WORKSHOP I

Frege's Epistemology of Basic Logical Laws

June 22–23, 2013
University of Stirling
Pathfoot Building, Room B2

Saturday 22nd

- 9.30–11 Robert May
What's not Special about Axioms (and Basic Laws)
chair: Walter Pedriali
- 11–11.30 Coffee Break
- 11.30–1 Øystein Linnebo
Frege's context principle and our knowledge of abstract objects chair: Sònia Roca-Royes
- 1–2.30 Lunch
- 2.30–4 Peter Sullivan
Varieties of Alien Thought chair: Rafal Urbaniak
- 4–4.30 Coffee Break
- 4.30–6 Joan Weiner
Why does Frege care whether Julius Caesar is a number? Section 10 of Basic Laws and the context principle.
chair: Colin Johnston
- 8 Conference Dinner (The Meadowpark)

Sunday 23rd

- 9.30–11 Erich Reck
Frege, Dedekind, and the Laws of Thought chair: Marcus Rossberg
- 11–11.30 Coffee Break
- 11.30–1 Gottfried Gabriel Frege on the Justification of Basic Logical Laws
chair: Philip Ebert
- 1–2 Lunch
- 2–4 Round Table
chair: Adam Rieger

Frege@Stirling gratefully acknowledges the support of the Scots Philosophical Association, the Analysis Trust and the University of Stirling.
Frege@Stirling is made possible thanks to funding from the Leverhulme Early Career Fellowship awarded to Walter Pedriali.

The Leverhulme Trust